About 1 o'clock yesterday morning as Officer John Murray was passing down Lackawanna street he heard the sound of breaking glass, and upon investigation found that one of the front windows of Shultz's Clothing store was smashed.

The officer noticed a man walking away at a rapid gait and gave pursuit. The suspect was followed into an alley not far distant and captured. He was taken before Justice of the Peace Cummings and given a hearing. He gave his name as John R. Thomas and resides in Peckville. He pleaded guilty and was committed to the county jail under the charge of malicious mischief.

After a long illness William Moran passed quietly away at the home of his parents on Dunmore street Thursday night about 9 o'clock. The deceased was 26 years of age and was a young man of excellent qualities. He is survived by his parents, four sisters and three brothers. The funeral will take place Monday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment will be made in the Catholic cemetery.

The McKinley and Hobart club of Hakeley will meet next Tuesday evening in Owens hall. District Attorney John H. Jones will address the meeting.

Leslie, the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Parry, of Bell street, died Thursday evening after a brief illness. The funeral will take place today at 2:30 o'clock. Interment will be made in Union cemetery.

AVOCA.

The Primitive Methodist Sabbath school anniversary services will be held tomorrow at 10 a. m., 2 p. m. and 6:30 o'clock.

St. Mary's school will re-open in St. Mary's church on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hallock entertained a party of young folks on Thursday evening.

TUNKHANNOCK

An interesting programme has been issued for the county convention of the Women's Christian Temperance union, which will be held at the Baptist church in this place on Wednesday next.

There will be morning, afternoon and evening sessions, the principal feature of the latter being an illustrated lecture by E. J. Nichols, esq., of Wilkes-Barre.

W. C. Crusier, the suave editor of the Montrose Democrat, was holding down a seat in the grand stand at the fair, and incidentally encouraging the silver sentiment yesterday.

Fred Wilcox, the Factoryville painter, exhibited some of his handiwork at the fair in shape of sign writing and graining. Fred's schooling in the art began over in the Rheinland in his boyhood days, but years of practice have been added since he landed under the stars and stripes.

It is not surprising others to say that no other hand in the country has the cunning of his in that vocation.

The Meschopy creamery has closed up business on account of lack of patronage.

A tramp who received an extra "hand-out" at one of the uptown residences, asked for a magazine to read, when he was through with his lunch, he promptly sought to prepare an egress on the silver question.

The delegation of Tammany tigers who went to the state convention over the Lehigh Valley route, made no speeches while the train was waiting at this station. They were apparently too full for oration.

HERE AND THERE.

The county Populists have pledged their candidates, if elected, not to take more than two-thirds the salary or fees allowed by law for their services. A safe proposition, under the circumstances.

A western silverite paper at hand gives a diagram of the United States showing thirty-three states solid for silver and the balance of them doubtful. As New York remarked, while threading another piece of cutgut into his violin pipe, "Let 'em burn, they're all insured."

The campaign of education was suspended yesterday, while the borough schools adjourned to the fair.

Mrs. Jacob Fritz is very ill and her recovery is doubtful.

Rev. W. H. Mentzer will fill the Methodist pulpit tomorrow, in the absence of Rev. J. C. Leacock, who goes to Union Hill to conduct quarterly meeting services.

The Eaton township farmers and business men have organized a McKinley and Hobart club.

Tunkhannock will put on its holiday clothes again next Friday, when the people from all parts of the county will assemble to hear Hon. John Wannamaker, Homer Greene and Congressman J. H. Costing. The speakers will arrive at noon, and at 1:30 p. m. will open up hostilities at the court house and opera house simultaneously. After talking awhile, the speakers will exchange places giving all a chance to hear them. They will talk on the political issues of the day, going to Montrose in time to fill an engagement there.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Carins and two children have returned from a pleasant visit with friends at Hazleton.

MONTROSE.

Willis R. Babcock, of Bridgewater, called on his Montrose friends yesterday.

Luther Ellwood, of Rush, was in Montrose yesterday.

The McKinley and Hobart club, of Brooklyn, will hold a mass meeting to-night. W. D. B. Alney and others will speak and the meeting is already an assured success.

Judge Jessup is one of the firm, solid Republicans of the "northern tier." He is a man above reproach and one whom he speaks, says more than pen can accurately portray.

When he scored the free silver men and called Crusier, of the Democrat, to account, he did it with all earnestness and with the exuberance of a younger man.

Marshall A. Barney, who was badly injured at New Milford several weeks ago, is now able to be about with the aid of crutches.
